Valentine Party. Very attractive invitations in verse have been issued by the members of the Belle Harrison Memorial Circle, who will give a Valentine party this aftermoon for the benefit of the Sheltering Arms Hospital. The invitations say:

Our Valentine Party
Is something quite new
And a nice invitation
We now send to you.

On Friday, the twelfth,
Is the day we have set
At the Woman's Club-house,
So do not forget,

Four-thirty the time;
There will be fun galore.
And a Valentine each
For a dime at the door. Alumnae Tea.

Alumnae Tea.

The Alumnae tea given at the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon was a' brilliant success financially and in point of attendance, the receiving party being busily occupied from 4 to 7 o'clock in welconing the many whose presence testified to the interest felt in the object of the entertainment, the raising of money for the Cocke Memorial fund.

Mrs. Montague was assisted in receiving by: Mrs. Andrew J. Montague, Mrs. James D. Crump, Mrs. James J. Hickey, Mrs. Willianson, Mrs. Eppa Hunton, Miss Payne, Mrs. Putney, Mrs. W. A. Anderson, Miss Bell Perkins, Mrs. Hirsh, Mrs. Ida. Ellerson, Mrs. Alexander Cam-

The musical programme was a most delightful feature of the affair. Miss Roberta Allen, whose skill as violinist, is too well known to need praise, was is too well known to need place, was listened to with the greatest pleasure in: a "Cavatina" and a "Gavotte," by Bohn. Miss Mabel Sims, the accompanist, played several of her own beautiful com-positions, and Mrs. Yeamans was warmly applauded for the fine manner in which she recited "The Lady of Shalott" to music.

Miss Martha Mosby Snead was in charming voice as was proved by her singing of Novin's "Nightingale Song." and Fontenallie's "Obstination." Afterwards Miss Snead, by special request, favored the audience with a "Lullaby." Governor Montague, and many members of the Virginia Legislature, attended the tea, Refreshments were served by a number of protty young society girls.

Miss Claru Virginia Becker is chairman of the "Japanese Tombola" to be given at $20 o'clock this evening in Belvidere Hall for the benefit of the Young People's Home Mission Society of Park Place M. E. Church. Mr. I. D. Hriggs is the musical director, and everything points to a great success.

Every one who is in any way connected with the entertainment will be in costumes. The Japanese maids will be in pretty Easter colored kimomas with obles of contrasting shades tied in butterfly bows. They will adopt the Japanese style of colifure and wear cherry blossoms and chrysanthemums in their claborately dressed tresses.

The men will be equally as gorgeous and oriental is appearance and costuming in regard to colors and styles worn. At the candy booth, packages will be distributed in Japanese baskets and boxes, or will be done up in Japanese mapkins. Fragrant tea, made from a direct Hong Kong importation, and hat checolate, with wafers, will be served to guests by Japanese maids in lovely Japanese chinaware, placed on lacquered trays. Every blossom plucked from the cherry tree will contain a number entitling the holder to a souventr.

Mrs. Brengle and Miss Moselle Gregory will delight the audience by singing solos. There will be twenty-eight voices in the opening and in the second chorus.

THE LAST HYMN.

By MARIANNE FARNINGHAM.

This peem is one of the better known works of Marianne Farningham, an English tess, who wrote chiefly on religious subjects.

HE Sabbath-day was ending in a village by the sea, The uttered benediction touched the people tenderly;
And they rose to face the sunlight in the glowing, lighted west, And then hastened to their dwellings for God's blessed boon of rest,

But they looked across the waters, and a storm was raging there, A florce spirit moved above them—the wild spirit of the air;
And it lashed, and shook, and tore them till they thundered, groaned and boomed, And alas! for any vessel in their yawning gulfs entombed.

Very anxious were the people on that rocky coast of Wales Lest the dawn of coming morrow should be telling awful tales, when the sea had spent its passion, and should cast upon the shore Bits of wrech and swellen victims, as it oft had done before.

With the rough winds blowing round her, a brave woman strained her eyes, And she saw among the billows a huge vessel fall and rise; Oh, it did not need a prophet to tell what the end must be. For no ship could ride in safety near the shore on such a sea

Then the pitying people hurrled from their homes and thronged the beach; Oh, for power to cross the waters and the perishing to reach!
Heipless hands were wrung in terror, tender hearts grew cold with dread,
And the ship, urged by the tempest, on the fatal rock-shore sped.

She had parted in the center! Oh, the half of her goes down God have mercy! Is heaven far to seek for those who drown?

Lo! when next the white, shocked faces looked with terror on the sea, Only one last clinging figure on the spar was seen to be.

Nearer to the trembling watchers came the wreck tossed by the wave, And the man still clung and floated, though no power on earth could save; "Could we send him one short message? Here's a trumpet, shout away!" 'Twas the preacher's hand that took it, and he wondered what to say.

Any memory of his sermon? Firstly? Secondly? Ah, no; There was but one thing to utter in that awful hour of wee, So he shouted through the trumpet, "Look to Jesus! Can you hear?" And "Aye, aye, sir!" rang the answer o'er the waters, loud and clear.

Then they listen. He is singing, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," And the winds brought back the echo: "While the nearer waters roll." Strange, indeed, it was to hear him: "Till the storm of life is past," Singing bravely o'er the waters: "Oh, receive my soul at last."

He could have no other refuge. "Hangs my helpless soul on Thee," "Leave, oh leave me not"—the singer dropped at last into the sea; And the watchers, looking homeward through their eyes by toars made dim, Said: 'He has passed to be with Jesus in the singing of that hymn."

Breaking of Baylor Survey and Lease of Land Must be Ratified by the Assembly.

RESPITE FOR OYSTERMEN

Anderson City Extension Bill Reported to Senate-Other Committee Action.

Whether the bill to break the Baylor survey and lease harren of deploted oyster rock now embraced therein pass the General Assembly or not at this session, it will not become effective until another General Assembly shall have met and ratified the survey required to be made under the terms of the committee bill which was substituted for House bill 35.

Mr. Sears, of Mathews, the Senator who Mr. Sears, of Mathews, the sense was chiefly instrumental in defeating the oyster bill in the last General Assembly made this point at a recent hearing of the bill, and the advocates of the measure had to agree with him in this view. As the bill is printed it now makes view. As the bill is printed it now makes specific provision for such report and ratification of that report by the next General Assembly before the bill becomes finally operative. From this it will be seen that there can be no lease of any oyster rock or shouls embraced in the present Baylor survey until January or February, 1905. The oystermen who oppose the bill are assured of this respite. Mr. Sens and his constituents are naturally well pleased with the situation. Even when such surveys and plots have been made they must pass muster with the General Assembly.

ably Reported to Senate.

The Senate Committee for Counties, Cities and Towns met yesterday afternoon and an hour's sitting determined to report favorably the bill for the extension of the corporate limits of cities and towns known as the Anderson bill, its patron being Colonel George Wayne Anderson. The measure passed the Senate last session, but the House refused to adopt it and it failed. A second effort to pass substantially the same bill in the Senate was defeated by Mr. Cogbill in the last two days of the session. This session the House Committee has already reported the bill favorably. has already reported the bill favorably, taking that action before the Senate Committee.

The bill was opposed in the committee by Mr. Sadler yesterday, but was reported by a vote of five to three. It will be further contested on the floor of the Senate and then it must run the geuntlet of opposition in the House. Mr. Sadler has a substitute bill dividing the cities of the State Into three classes with Richmond alone in one class, and making provisions for settling the question or annexation of territory in all three classes. Mr. Sadler may offer his bill as a substitute, for the committee report on the floor of the Senate.
